The Vengeance Henry Jarroman

many darrown has just over teased wonty years before for the murder of harles Eddls. He sake his solicitor, Theed, o find his daughter, who was 2 years old hon he was tried. Theed tells Jarrownan hat he has become a rish man. Jarrownan hat he nearly had no had a mandan, his one time friend, who stole his rife, hilled Eddis, and fastened the crime n Jarrownan. Theed tells him Camden has sen dead for ningteen years. Jarrownan's act beforged mind bids high make his dead nomy's innocent young daughter a victim a place of her father.

Camden's daughter, who believes her name be Madia Quest, is employed as a typist y the Hon. Wilfred Stranack. Stranack disvers that he loves her and suks her to sarry him. Lord Doucester, Stranack's ther, is startled when he recognises a ring sadis wears and identifies her as John Camon's daughter.

Claudine Crayne, the wife who dishonored whisked Claudine's

s that fell from neck to urned with an unholy fire.

re abandoned all attempts her face. Her keen edged biting sarcasm, would hur!

a din of hoarse laughter c farewells, Theed hurried the house, up the alley.

e to the waiting motor. sat back on the cushions, ke in her throat. Then her was in the habit ow a long, leisurely toilet. nent of which she thor-joyed. It was not vanity of craft. She conceived a part of her duty to her husband and society in general to look as attractive as possible, and e spared no pains to that end. Everyone knows that I make up and dve my hair and all the rest of it," she told a young girl once,

"and they think it jolly decent of me not to grudge them the time.'

Her preparations were only in stages and she still it isn't quite what one had hoped that was so real as to seem a living sarily safe coincidence."

sither we have made a mistake or nett, the latter being child stars ither we have made a mistake or inert, the latter being child stars who inere are forces at work that are ar from coincidental. The girl has told—by some guardian told—by some guardian lawyer, I gather—that she tures of the program gives four name," continued Doucesenry Jarroman." Soucester looked at her s if she wished she could m of practical joking.

unnatural calm. She reached for the rouge e acts," said Doucester. who had just come out and wished to meet her. et him on the following they satisfied each other elr respective identities,

"I wish you wouldn't use slang in me a peculiarly senseless "I thought you would understand THE GUMPS—Like the Man Who Lost His Left Hand and Left Leg—All Right!

I WASH'T SUCH A BAD CANDIDATE - I'M THE LITTLE VOTE GETTER, AIN'T 1? YOU PICKED A DERBY COLT WHEN YOU SENT ME TO THE POST-

I'M NOT CRAZY-

LOOKED OVER ALL

I'M JUST A POLITICIAN-DON'T DENY IT - AND KNOW EVERY REQUISITE OF A SUCCESSFUL POLITICIAN BUT THEY CAN PICK UP

MY BIB AND THEY WON'T FIND ANY SPOTS ON IT-PICKED YOU BECAUSE ! KNEW YOU ARE RIGHT-

RIGHT! I'LL BAY I'M RIGHT-PROMISED MY CONSTITUENTS THAT I WAS 100% FOR THEM AND IF . I GIVE THEM 94% I'LL THINK I CHEATED THEM-THIS CONGRESS STUFF IS ONLY A STEPPING STONE - THIS IS ONLY KINDERGARTEN STUFF

-By SMITH

NEW OFFERINGS IN WASHINGTON THEATERS

BELASCO.

"But he's not her father."

Mollentrave." Her nerves were on edge. "Do you think—is it possible that we were wrong? Perhaps after all she really is Jarroman's Continued Tomorrow little above a whisper.'

the suspect Theed of duplicity. He has merely blundered. Jarrosmbittered heart rejoices that the of his hate is delivered into his Madia tells Stranack that her new ather is an ex-convict and that she marry him.

Intinued from Yesterday.

The model of the coster girl fronted Claudine. "Come on, give the boys a treat."

Else and Paulsen, the marvelous skaters; Herman Timberg, with his quaint quips and withcissms, and Hattie Darling, pretty and shapely, are the high lights of Timberg's revue. "Frolics of 1922." the unit show which forms this week's attraction at the Belasco. In addition, the protection of the coster girl fronted Claudine. "Come on, give the boys a treat."

The spoke, with a sudden deft to spoke, which contains the sudden deft to spoke, with a sudden deft to spoke, with a sudden deft to spoke, with a sudden deft to spoke whisked Claudine's gram lists a Gallagher and Shean in the sudden deft to spoke whisked Claudine's gram lists a Gallagher and Shean in the sudden deft to spoke whisked Claudine's gram lists a Gallagher and Shean in the sudden deft to spoke whisked Claudine's gram lists a Gallagher and Shean in the sudden deft to spoke whisked Claudine's gram lists a Gallagher and Shean in the sudden deft to spoke the sudden d gram lists a Gallagher and Shean number, but evidently it was decided red her too tightly, and envy grew in her gaze. In't she luverly! Di'monds 'Ere, Lady Hangela, make you'll keep the third foottin."

Ine vaudeville really starts when Haitie Darling and Sammy Timberg put on their piano-violin specialty, and becomes decidedly interesting when Miss Darling appears in a notably abbreviated but becoming costume. She sings, dances and plays the violin to general approval, while ng the cloak round Claud-imbly as she had snatched Timberg does stunts on the plano. The Else and Paulsen revue, in which the great team of skaters appear, presents an Apache dance num-ber on skates. Else and Paulsen use her face. Her keen edged biting sarcasm, would hurl vain against this child of s-her own daughter.

an ice substitute that apparently has all the merits of the real article, and they perform feats that one would swy. even after seeing them. are me away," she whispered me away," she whispered tial appearance after the skating story scene and probably will succeed in immortalizing himself with his audience by propounding the great problem of the year: "What is it that grows on the desert and does not look like a ukelele?" There's an and in with you, Theed, answer for it, but even Timberg through clenched teeth. can recall what it is. Timberg is well known in Washington, and his characteristic specialty proved effective as usual.

Nat Nazarro presents Buck and Bubbles in a ragtime specialty, and ser," remarked Lady Doucester. "In the circumstances we agreed that their engagement should be ansounced in about a month's time. It isn't quite what one had hoped Mr. Arliss presented a character for Wiffred, but —she lowered her roice—"for him to marry John Zamden's daughter, is an extraordiarily safe coincidence".

Ann Forrest, in the leading feminine But unfortunately miriam Battista and "Mickey" Ben-characterization of her whole cinema career, has apparently settled down for a real run at Loew's Columbia Theater, where this masterpiece of photoplay art began its fourth week yesterday afternoon.

"Knighthood" is a picturized version by Robert G. Vignola of the spectacle of the melody, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes" and Beethoven's famous store.

"Minuet in G," both numbers of the melody will be settled own for a real run at Loew's Columbia Theater, where this masterpiece of photoplay art began its fourth week yesterday afternoon.

"Knighthood" is a picturized version by Robert G. Vignola of the special color photography to make the famous store. of an ex-convict." members of the orchestra a chance -convict!" repeated Lady to cover themselves with glory. The She hated repeating four in question are H. Sokolov, first t this time she could not violin; C. V. Burrows, second viothe melody, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes" and Beethoven's famous story of chivalry and roming well deserved approach "It presentation.

i to us here—the day up well to the high standard of the blood who defied her kingly brothwent to Creighley—this entire bill, a laughable juvenile er. Henry VIII of England, and who person took her out to comedy, entitled "Young Sherlock," selected the man of her choice person took her out to comedy, entitled "Young Sherlock," selected the man of her choice in spite of kings and courts and ght up under the name of A Blanket Stiff," "Topics of the royal traditions of centuries, pay" and an exclusive showing of The settings which make father was Henry the Fox News all contributing to had just come out make the showing one of which the Rialto has every reason to be proud.

Sleeps During Car Crash.

MUSKKEGON, Mich., Nov. 12 .-Herman Havenga is a sound sleeper His auto plunged down an Mollentrave. What do Sheriff Mathews arrived he found has been by "there we are?" It Havenga sleeping in the car and Director. Sheriff Mathews arrived he found has been brought to her support by had to hoist him out through the cludes Lyn Harding, Forrest Stanhe rest, my dear," said Doucester get out so I w. seekly. "As soon as the girl heard plained Havenga.

STRAND.

You'd Be Surprised. "You'd Be Surprised" headlines

he program at the Strand Theater this week. Last night's audience taxed the capacity of the house. "You'd Be Surprised" lives up to its name. There are dances and omedy, the whole forming a sort of the artists appear in previous to the major offering and The Lampinis open the bill with to remove it.

The show gots away with a novelty prologue showing how a theatrical and Bowers follow with a pianothat fell from neck to manager goes about the job of pui-The show gots away with a horself of a candlelight; the chain of s that fell from neck to urned with an unholy fired at satin and sables with need at satin The 'vaudeville really starts when Hattle Darling and Sammy Timbers

Carry a bag full or new stories and falsely accused. Her fight to save the choice he made and the war, broke and the reasons for it in a manner that is his life and the romance which fascinating, engrossing and dracomes to her make an interesting matically powerful.

As Kath story.

Subsidiary features and orchestral numbers, including as overture. "Suez" by Rose and as exit march erally "Eaby Blue Eyes" by Hirsch, complate the bill.

CRANDALI'S.

the early stages and she still looked her age—when her husband knocked at the door. Petulantly she dismissed her maid and invited him to enter.

"Good morning, my dear," said Lord Doucester, "I am sorry to disturb you, but it had to be done." He seated himself on a divan and stared at the ceiling, his hands thrust into his pockets.

"I wish you wouldn't stilke that, "You had better smoke."

"Thank you, my dear," said Lord Doucester, eagerly availing himself of the permission, whereupon his thoughts collected themselves.

"I's a bit of a shock, Emmeline, I had a chat wit Wilfred last alight after you'd gone to bed about — the circumstances we agreed that is bride has learned for love another, he divise her from him that she may have her freedom in the circumstances we agreed that is bride has learned in the circumstances we agreed that is bride has learned in the circumstances we agreed that is bride has learned in the circumstances we agreed that is bride has learned in the circumstances we agreed that is bride has learned in the circumstances we agreed that is bride has learned in the circumstances we agreed that is bearing, learns that his bride has learned in the circumstances we agreed that is bearing, learns that his learned in the circumstances we agreed that is bearing, learns that his large and shearing the most important parts are not seen to find the profit of the promiser of the morning counter of the gay court of th

COLUMBIA.

Marion Davies in "When Knight-hood Was in Flower."

Knighthood Was the gorgeous and splendid Flower," the gorgeous and splendid streets and pack the great out.

Maximus. The chariot rad

"Minuet in G," both numbers winning well deserved approval. The interpretative score, with which Director George Wild has surrounded the feature showing it like the feature with the feature showing it like the feature show reached for the rouge the feature showing, is likewise in a setting of golden, jeweled worthy of special mention as it adds splendor that makes even more remarkable the splendid outstanding nat the day after she was The concert film features measure in the role of a princess of the up well to the high standard of the blood who defied her kingly brothcharacterization of Marion Davies beauty were created by Joseph Ursigner who has made the settings or many productions of Ziegfeld's 'Follies," but most important of all, perhaps, next to Miss Davles' interpretation of the stellar role, is the splendid and notable cast that door. He is charged with driving ley, Ruth Shepley, Theresa Maxwell pivotal scenes. The score is a com-while intoxicated. "I could not Conover. Macey Harlam, Pedro de manding potpourri of the foremost so I went to sleep," ex- Cordoba and many other players of dramatic works of the world's great-

Meighan in "The Man

Thomas Meighan, the photoplay star, seems to have mastered the business of obtaining stories. This is certainly true of "The Man Who Saw Tomorrow," an intensely intercomedy. All of comedy and appearing comedy acts of south Seas and of London society written for Mr. Meighan by Perley Poore Sheehan and Frank Condon which began a week's engagement at Loew's Palace Theater yesterday afternoon before a capacity audi-

English Chapple and His Friend" arry a bag full of new stories and songs.

In Alice Lake's new picture. "Woman's Hate," there is provided screen fare that holds interest. It is full of thrilling situations, involving characters of vivid interest, whose clashing objectives serve to make a drama without a dull moment.

Alice Lake plays the role of a pretty little show girl who becomes into the future, to see himself first as the husband of one woman and then role of ner admirers is falsely accused. Her fight to save himself and the romance which life and the romance which solve it is fascinating, engrossing and dra-

Nat Nazarro presents Buck and Bubbles in a ragtime specialty, and the revue which makes up the second part of the program centers about the theater box office and checkroom, and the conflict of joys and glooms.

RIALTO.

George Arliss in "The Man Who Played Or Versented at Moore's Rialto Theater was presented at Moore's Rialto Theater wounded by the insults of her profilingate husband, becomes the reign.

All Salary of the program the first three days of the current week, beginning yesterday. In this subject, Miss Talmadge has the perfect vehicle for the display of her manifold talents—perfect in story development, investiture, acting and photography.

A vrogram of unusual merit was presented at Moore's Rialto Theater yesterday, the show featuring George Arliss in "The Man Who Played of the program adapting the cinema adapting the cin Lester, Irving Cummings, Otis Har-Lester, Irving Cummings, Otis Har-zenith and human life was held lan. Adolphe Jean Menjoua and cheap at court has been reproduced Wedgewood Nowell.

The bill for the early-week is completed by abbreviated camera highest pitch of realism is attained. who are inline completed by abbreviated camera subjects and pipe organ accompaniment and interludes.

The massive buildings with their gorgeous furnishings and bizarre trappings have all the appearance trapping are trapping are trapping are trapping are trapping to the property of the of being genuine. Legions are massed and moved through valleys and over mountains. Mobs, the like of which the screen has never known before, swarm through the ontinental countries.

In the title role Jacques Gretillat, a star of the French stage, offers remembered by those who see it. Mons. Gretillat is endowed with features, physique and temperatm that equip him especially well for the difficult task with which he is confronted. Paulette Duval Edy Darciea, as Poppaea and Acte, rivals for the favor of the Empero are both beautiful women of con trasting types and gifted actresses. Two unusually effective portrayal are contributed by Alexander Salvini, as Horatius, and Nero Bernardi as the young apostle of the Chris-tian faith.

An augmented orchestra under the conductorship of N. Mirskey yesterday brought a richness of inpretation of "Nero" that added Gov. Henry J. Allen, his life-long much of the dramatic fire of the friend, announced such posters vio-pivotal scenes. The score is a comest composers.

THE PRESIDENT

"Smills' Through." The President Players presented at

President last night "Smilin Through," by Allan Langdon Martin.
THE CAST
(In the order of their appearance)
Sarah Wayne Margaret McCambridge
Mary Clare Buth Parry
John Carteret Guy D'Ennery
Dr. Owen Harding Robert Lowe
Ellen Helen Blair
Kathleen Dungannen Eileen Wilson
Willie Ainley Graham Velsey
Kenneth Wayne
Charles Walters John Carmody
Bert Henley Irving Kennedy
Alicia Datchett Margaret McCambridge
Jeremiah Wayne
Wasses Class Piles Wilson
Moonyoen Clare Eileen Wilson Class to ofer property to bear fascinating, engrossing and dramatically powerful.

The supporting cast, particularly Leatrice Joy and June Elvidge of fer characterizations that are literally splendid, while Theodore Roberts, as the father of the island girl; Alex Francis as the father of the other woman; Albert Roscoe in a villainous part, and others lend CRANDALL'S.

Norma Talmadge in "The Eternal Flame."

Norma Talmadge's most recent and most opulent production for First National. "The Eternal Flame." is on view at Crandall's with a most of the program of the management of Loew's Palace, as usual, has surrounded the featured attraction of the program featured attraction of the program of the progra give a pleasing performance difficult production

GAYETY.

"Al Reeves' Beauty Show" A fair array of burlesque talent avorts on the Gayety stage this week under the name of "Al Reeves" Beauty Show." Al Reeves is appearing personally in the show, do-ing a light repartes—as the pro-is a new recruit as a burlesque comedian, but he manages to do fairly well with the comedy he has to work with. As for Miss Giles, she is a peppy soubrette, sings her song numbers well and scored a decisive hit with George Ward.

are very weak and some of them very old. Lee Hickman does a ery good comedy character and all of his scenes were good. The Marks Brothers, Lew and Bert, are well placed in the current show and although their song repertoire rather old, they amuse as well as any other performer. Nick Vitale, too, helps the Marks boys with Ada Lum, Edith Murray and Elinor Marshall are members of the ast and they lend their voices to has secured for his show. Reeves does practically the same act as he did last year. He re-tains much of his pep and shility as a banjoist, and that part of his

GIRL ABDUCTOR AGAIN ARRESTED

YONKERS, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Al-bert Tondra, middle-aged instructor in music, known as the eloping professor, is in jail again—this time feest heightened or employment of natural otography to make the ames seem all the more ling is superb. Violet the control of the con in music, known as the eloping pro-The acting is superb. Violet Mersereau is the only American in the cast, the others being assembled from the stages and screens of Italy, France, Russia, Denmark and other continuous. from the girl.

Last night local authorities sert he was found talking to Miss Beszedes in Grand Central terminal. presumably preparing for another elopment. Tondra was returned to Yonkers and locked up pending a hearing.

WHITE, OF EMPORIA, TO BE TRIED NOV. 22

EMPORIA, Kans., Nov. 12 .- Trial EMPORIA, Kans., Nov. 12.—Trial of William Allen White, editor of the Emporia Gazette, charged with violating an order of the Kansas Industrial Court, is set for November 22 before Judge W. C. Harris, of the Lyon County District Court.
White is charged with displaying unlawfully a placard, sympathizing with striking railroad shopmen, in strumentation to the musical inter- the window of the Gazette when White termed the order a move to stop free speech and violated it. Allen ordered his arrest.

HOROSCOPE

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1922. Good and evil planetary inluences have sway today, according to astrology. Jupiter and Mercury are in benefic aspect, while Venus accounts should be settled. There is a fairly good sign for initiative in business. The opening the desire to seek excitement thro of new partnerships should be prof-

Real estate and home-building will be of permanent interest to persons all through the winter.

Real troubles and severe tests Thrift is enjoined by those who have the gift of foreknowledge.

of new shops or the establishment drinking or drug-taking is believed to be encouraged. Increase of ngryous diseases indicated by the direction of Leases and agreements of every sort have the best direction under this configuration.

the forecast of a most successfu year in which they realize the fruition of their best desires. They Children born on this day are likely to be bright and clever. They Under the evil power of Uranus will win success in life.

Woodward & Lothwop

Open 9:15 A. M.

10th, 11th, F and G Sts.

Children's Book Week

Begins Today, and the opening of the Children's Christmas Book Store

In this picture you will see, with Jan, all the folk of storybook land in "Through the Cloud Mountains." $2.50

This is the Fourth Annual Children's Book Week, and we are ready for it with a wonderful display of truly children's books. There are the books that mother loved when she was a little girl; books of adventure; books that reopen the door to Fairy Land: books that teach our children the history of our country; and then, more books.

For Little Folk

Piper, and so many others.

For Boys

There are the Mother West There are real boys' books.

Wind Stories, that tell them Scouts of Seal Island, $1.00; "How," "Why," "When" and High Benton, $1.75; The Tides "Where," $1 each; The Ad- of Deal, $1.75; and especially good are Rhead's Illustrated Classics, $1.75 each. In these he'll find Arabian Nights, Tom Brown's School Days, Robin Hood, Robinson Crusoe, Swiss ventures of Bunny Bobtail, $1.25; the wonderful "Child's Garden of Verse," beautifully illustrated, $1.50; the enchanting story of Little Prince Too-Family Robinson, and others that boys have read and loved fat, with colored pictures that little folks will love, $2.50; Mother Goose and The Pied (perhaps secretly) for many,

For Girls

Mary Jane Down South, 50c; The Little Cockalorum, $1.75; The Flower of Fortune, $1.75; the whole series of The Little Peppers, their trials and troubles and good times and hap-piness, told in the language of children. $1.75 each; and the funny Miss Minerva Books, $1.25 each, and a whole long list of enchanting Fairy Tales, $1 each, a finer edition of which you may have at $1.50

These are but a few, but they are Books that are really worthy of the childand the child is worthy of only the best in Books.